

Executive Search

The most challenging task for credit unions today is identifying and securing talent that will lead the organization into the next generation. Finding the right leadership can improve board relations, increase membership satisfaction and staff retention, ultimately leading to the goal of enhanced financial performance.

LEVERAGE has partnered with Credit Union Resources to deliver a customized search process that goes beyond traditional advertising and interviewing. We seek out the right candidate that fits into your credit union's culture and needs.

We Offer:

- Searches with a local, regional or national focus
- A service that is totally focused on the credit union industry
- Processes to identify key attributes that will work best with the culture of your organization
- A proven track record of successful placements that move credit unions forward

Credit Union Resources, Inc.

If we can assist you with an Executive Search or if you would like more information please contact us at consult@myleverage.com.

LEVERAGE
Your Advantage