Cooperative Credit Union Association Announces Strategic Partnership with LEVERAGE to Expand Solutions for Member Credit Unions

Marlborough, MA – The Cooperative Credit Union Association (CCUA) announces a strategic partnership with LEVERAGE, a service organization aligned with The League of Credit Unions & Affiliates, to provide member credit unions with enhanced employee benefits solutions, along with expanded accounting, financial management, and audit services.

Through this collaboration, CCUA member credit unions gain access to a suite of services designed to improve efficiency and support growth. A key component of the partnership is LEVERAGE Benefits Group, which offers comprehensive employee benefits consulting, administration, and consolidated invoicing—helping simplify processes while delivering more flexible and competitive options for employees.

Additional offerings include AUX Accounting and CFO Services, providing support ranging from daily processing and reconciliations to financial reporting, budgeting, forecasting, and asset-liability management. These services give credit unions access to experienced financial professionals and strategic guidance without the need for a full-time, in-house team.

The partnership also includes audit solutions through The Audit Group, offering services such as supervisory committee audits, BSA audits, ACH audits, and member account verification, all tailored specifically for credit unions.

“This partnership expands access to the tools and expertise credit unions need to compete and grow,” said Melissa Pomeroy, EVP & Chief Operating Officer of the Cooperative Credit Union Association. “Working with LEVERAGE brings scalable solutions—particularly in employee benefits and financial operations—that allow credit unions of all sizes to focus on what matters most: their members.”

“This partnership with CCUA is about creating real momentum for credit unions,” said Steve Willis, President of LEVERAGE. “By combining our resources and expertise, we’re delivering solutions that simplify operations, strengthen financial performance, and give credit unions the flexibility to grow in a rapidly evolving market.”

LEVERAGE is recognized for delivering innovative products and services that support credit union performance and long-term success. This partnership strengthens a shared commitment to providing practical, high-impact solutions to credit unions across the region.
